Whereas, I, Pranab Mukherjee, President of India, have received a report from the Governor of the State of Andhra Pradesh and after considering the report and other information received by me, I am satisfied that a situation has arisen in which the Government of that State cannot be carried on in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of India (hereinafter referred to as 'the Constitution'),

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by article 356 of the Constitution and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby proclaim that I – so much of clause (2) of article 323 as relates to the laying of the report with a memorandum before the Legislature of the State;

(iii) any reference in the Constitution to the Governor shall, in relation to the said State, be construed as a reference to the President, and any reference therein to the Legislature of the State shall, insofar as it relates to the functions and powers thereof, be construed, unless the context otherwise requires, as a reference to Parliament, and, in particular, the references in Art.213 to the Governor and to the Legislature of the State shall be construed as references to the President and to Parliament or to the Houses thereof respectively;
